American History & Science Park Future Educators visit to the UNITED NATIONS

801 First Avenue, New York, NY

Friday May 18, 2018

Pre-Planning: World History & Global Challenges

Prior to the trip students will research scholarly sources, read, evaluate and form opinions about...

- The history of the United Nations, and the role it plays in trying to maintain world peace;
- The Declaration of Human Rights;
- Ralph Bunche: the important role Ralph Bunche played in the UN;
- Eleanor Roosevelt's involvement in the UN;
- The responsibilities of an ambassador;

Students will participate in a guided tour which "offer an engaging way to explore the United Nations Headquarters:

- Visit the newly renovated General Assembly Hall, the Security Council Chamber, the Trusteeship Council Chamber, and the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) Chamber in the renovated Conference Building.
- Learn about how the United Nations addresses issues such as disarmament, peace and security, human rights, and the Millennium Development Goals."
- In the human rights section of the tour, you will have the opportunity to view the 30 articles of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights designed by Brazilian artist Octavio Roth.
- At the disarmament stop of the tour, you will see: remnants of the nuclear explosions in Nagasaki and Hiroshima (coins, bottles, and the statue of St. Agnes), landmines of various types and shapes, and
- the Escopetarra, a guitar made from an AK47 by César López, a Colombian musician and social activist.; and
- view the "Transatlantic Slave Trade Exhibit

After returning from the trip, students will develop a brochure that describes their UN trip experience, and the most important thing they learned.

Overview

The United Nations is an international organization founded in 1945. It is currently made up of 193 Member States. The mission and work of the United Nations are guided by the purposes and principles contained in its founding Charter.

Member States

Each of the 193 Member States of the United Nations is a member of the General Assembly. States are admitted to membership in the UN by a decision of the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the Security Council

Leadership

The Secretary-General of the United Nations is a symbol of the Organization's ideals and a spokesman for the interests of the world's peoples, in particular the poor and vulnerable. The current Secretary-General of the UN, and the eighth occupant of the post, is Mr. Ban Ki-moon of the Republic of Korea, who took office on 1 January 2007. The UN Charter describes the Secretary-General as "chief administrative officer" of the Organization.

Official Languages

There are six official languages of the UN. These are Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Russian and Spanish. The correct interpretation and translation of these six languages, in both spoken and written form, is very important to the work of the Organization, because this enables clear and concise communication on issues of global importance.

Famous Quotes

To make our way, we must have firm resolve, persistence, tenacity. We must gear ourselves to work hard all the way. We can never let up. —Ralph Bunche
<http://www.azquotes.com/quote/41075>

Peace is no mere matter of men fighting or not fighting. Peace, to have meaning for many who have known only suffering in both peace and war, must be translated into bread or rice, shelter, health, and education, as well as freedom and human dignity - a steadily better life. If peace is to be secure, long-suffering and long-starved, forgotten peoples of the world, the underprivileged and the undernourished, must begin to realize without delay the promise of a new day and a new life. —Ralph Bunche

The well-being and the hopes of the peoples of the world can never be served until peace - as well as freedom, honor and self-respect - is secure. —Ralph Bunche : <http://www.azquotes.com/quote/523315> View Ralph Bunche's biography at http://www.nobelprize.org/nobel_prizes/peace/laureates/1950/bunche-bio.html#.V0vWIDhEWDU.email

You gain strength, courage and confidence by every experience in which you really stop to look fear in the face. You are able to say to yourself, 'I have lived through this horror. I can take the next thing that comes along.' You must do the thing you think you cannot do. --Eleanor Roosevelt

Friendship with oneself is all-important, because without it one cannot be friends with anyone else in the world. -
Eleanor Roosevelt

The future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams.

It is not fair to ask of others what you are unwilling to do yourself. -Eleanor Roosevelt

To handle yourself, use your head; to handle others, use your heart.
